Benefits: Six luncheon meetings during 2010 at no additional cost are held at the beautiful Santa Ana Country Club in Santa Ana. In addition to a delicious meal, a hosted bar is included at each event. A speaker of interest will address the Society at each meeting. Past speakers have included county supervisors, international and local economists, trade representatives, CFO's of major corporations and Orange County's Great Park.

The Orange County Financial Society was organized in 1972. Our membership consists of a diverse group of financial professionals, including bankers, accountants, chief financial officers, attorneys, factors and others in all types of private businesses. Our purpose is to promote cooperation and goodwill toward business activities with respect to commerce in Orange County.

Investment: 2010 dues are $225 per calendar year when paid by Jan. 29, 2010. If paid after that date, dues are $250. Please make checks payable to the Orange County Financial Society.

Mail this application with a check to our Treasurer:
